High Engagement + High Health Impact = Meaningful Outcomes

There are countless wellness initiatives you can focus on – from questionnaires to flu shots and everything in between. It can be difficult to know which ones to pick for true program success.

We've eliminated this burden by studying 10 years of varying program designs and surveying our current participants, to find and package together the core initiatives proven to deliver impactful health outcomes.

By focusing on these, high-impact, high-engagement initiatives you will create a strong foundation to improve many areas of health, including: weight, blood pressure, cholesterol, mood, energy, while also lowering the risk of diabetes, heart disease, cancer risks and more.

Administration is a breeze with myInertia Select

You simply sign up, download the communication tools, distribute the portal to employees & go.

Our proven model collects wearable data, awards points and generates reports all automatically. From there you can decide on the awards/incentive structure of your choice.

You'll also have access to our expert support team, who will handle all your administrative and employee portal and device questions directly.

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

1 An online personal account and mobile app for each employee

The modern, easy-to-use, online experience puts all the tools employees need for success at their finger tips. They can track personal health goals, earn points for their actions and interact with colleagues in challenges and leaderboards.

2 Integration with the top 3 wearable brands: Garmin, Fitbit & Apple Watch

Fitness trackers drive population engagement through both the automation of data collection and the support of behavior change principles like: awareness, immediate feedback, achievement of short-term goals and supporting social connections.

3 Unlimited physical activity challenges

Challenges allow you to motivate and build new social interactions within your workplace. That's why you get unlimited access to build-your-own challenges. You can pick from our catalog of options, or build one completely unique to your culture.

“I love all of the interactive challenges as well as the point system. It's so fun to push myself to earn more, be more active and take care of myself.”
